Stories of transformed lives in Dorset and Wiltshire

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND
DIOCESE OF SALISBURY

2018 No. 9

The Local Church Is Best

"My passion is the local church."

Lucinda Herklots is due to move on in November after fourteen years as Diocesan Secretary. Her journey to faith started in a little Saxon Church near her grandparents' farm in Sussex.

"My father was an army officer, so I spent all my holidays there. Then at an Anglican convent secondary school, I was an acolyte and head of the choir, which meant a great deal to me.

"My darkest hour was at university aged 19, when I became seriously ill and needed a kidney transplant. I just said to God, 'over to you'. He provided. That has been my guiding force ever since.

"My husband, Radu, is a priest's son, and we used to worship and help a little at his father's church near Portsmouth. Then after he retired, we began to get involved in Salisbury Cathedral.

"I worked for 23 years as an electronics engineer, based locally but travelling all over the world. By the early 2000s,

I wanted to travel less and see more of Radu. When this job was advertised, it seemed to be perfect, and I was appointed to my surprise and delight.

"It might seem far from the grassroots, but being Diocesan Secretary is about providing the resources for mission and ministry in parishes. The church is best when it is local.

"This is seen as a pressure job, but I've enjoyed these years and leave with very mixed emotions. I've loved the people, places and culture of the Diocese.

"Whatever God has in store for me now, I'll be around in Salisbury for it."

Monthly Letter

The Ven Sue Groom
Archdeacon of Wilts

It's the time of year when we come together to give thanks to God for the safe gathering in of the harvest, and for all that he gives to us. The celebration of harvest should produce an attitude of gratitude.

The traditional hymn 'We plow the fields and scatter' with its chorus All good gifts around us are sent from heaven above, then thank the Lord, O thank the Lord for all his love reminds me how poor we are at giving thanks for all the good things in our lives.

We're far more likely to be moaning and complaining about the irritating and frustrating things in our lives. I'm just as much to blame here as the next person! But why is it? Why are we more likely to moan than to give thanks? I don't think I'm alone in this.

I was reading an issue of the Saga Magazine recently (yes, I am old enough to do so!) Grandparents were asking for advice on how to encourage their grandchildren to respond to gifts with an expression of gratitude, preferably in the form of a card or letter, but some said that even an email, or a text would do!

Elizabeth Barrett Browning wrote

*Earth's crammed with heaven,
And every common bush afire with God;
But only he who sees takes off his shoes;
The rest sit round and pluck blackberries.*

So, join in the celebration of harvest, have an attitude of gratitude. Give thanks to God for all that is good in your life, for your home, your daily food and fresh water, your family and friends.

And say 'thank you' to everyone who provides anything for you.

See what a difference it makes to your own life and to your relationships with others when you have an attitude of gratitude.

New Church School Opens

The first new church school in the Diocese for 14 years has just been officially opened by Bishop Nicholas.

St Peter's CE Primary Academy is on the huge new developments at the former Land Forces HQ site in Wilton.

Headteacher Oliver Martindale said, "This is every Headteacher's dream - to build a school, ensuring the highest possible standards of teaching, learning, aspiration and behaviour.

"I will make the most of this extraordinary privilege, as part of the rich network we are establishing with the church and wider community."

Diocese of Salisbury Academy Trust (DSAT) CEO Mark Lacey said, "Ollie and the staff have hit the ground running, and the children are even more excited!"

Called to the Countryside

"There is as much opportunity in a rural context to lead a lively, thriving church."

After a lifetime living in towns, last year the Revd Ali Bridewell started as Priest in Charge of the new Wellsprings Benefice, centred on Devizes.

"All six villages are different from one another, making it very interesting.

"I grew up in St Francis' Church in Salisbury, staying involved through to adulthood. I eventually led youth ministry there with my husband Stuart.

"Eventually, I became more unsettled in my MoD researcher career, and trained as a counsellor to degree level.

At the same time, I found a call to ordained ministry deepening. As I started to test it, the doors opened one after another.

"I was offered a generous redundancy, which funded me to work part-time during my years training at Sarum. I worked for Bemerton Methodist Church's outreach worker, a great experience of ecumenical working.

"I started training on my own financing, not going to selection conference until February of the first year. I am not a risk taker but had a real sense of God calling me out of my comfort zone!

"My curacy was also in Bemerton. The community centre on the estate was a great base to learn how to be a priest, but was quite pioneering - building networks and community.

"I was surprised to find myself applying to work in a country benefice, but we felt a definite call. The same skills are required as in towns. It's

Four New Lay Ministers

Four new Licensed Lay Ministers (LLMs) have completed their three-year training at Sarum College and have been admitted to this office, which authorises them to preach and lead worship, among many other things.

Judy Anderson, Diocesan Associate Warden of LLMs, said, "After rigorous training alongside ordinands, they will now minister in local parishes.

"LLMs have a unique role as highly trained theologians based principally in a secular context. This gives them the opportunity to connect with people who may never come to church.

"If you think you might have a calling to a lay ministry, explore more at salisburycalling.org."

about making the right connections with people. People are still committed to their local church, although they may not come often on Sunday mornings, so we must connect outside the historic patterns.

"A difference is that a rural vicar can't be anonymous, but people have been incredibly welcoming and friendly.

"Rural ministry is a full-on job but there are great joys; growing our own vegetables, a strong community and good neighbour. It's a great place to walk the dogs in tranquil countryside. The village pub is also a great place to build friendships and relationships!"

As we remember the 100th anniversary of the end of the First World War and see the tragedy of a lost generation of men, I am reminded of how many people said at the end of the war 'never again' Never again, yet every time we switch on the news on our TVs, and radios or pick up a newspaper, we are bombarded by conflict, conflict between countries around the world. Since 1918 world-wide there has not been a single day without war.

War can seem so far away. Nations fighting for economic gain, territorial gain, religion, nationalism, or simply to defend themselves. This year however it has felt a little closer to home with the Novichok attacks in Salisbury. Also there have been an unprecedented number of conflicts on our national streets, with young people, especially males, losing their lives to gun and knife crime.

Having lived and worked in 2 war zones, firstly on the Thai Cambodian border and then later on the Pakistan Afghanistan border I've seen the horror and effects of war first hand, with civilians so often suffering equally as much as those in military roles. Death, injuries, people maimed and displaced, needing hope to believe that life can ever be good again. The horror and reality of war.

In August 1914 young men around the country signed up for military service. Great Britain had just declared war on Germany and scores of young men signed up, most thinking that the war would be over by Christmas and they would be safely home with their families for the festivities.

How wrong they were. Some returned early, shell shocked and injured while many died in the service of their country. Memorials in our churches bear witness to those who never returned. The Armistice was signed at 5 a.m. on November 11th 1918 and among its 34 clauses, were the following that would come into effect within six hours of signing:

- The termination of all hostilities on the Western Front (11 a.m.)
- Surrender of arms: 5,000 artillery pieces, 25,000 machine guns, 3,000 mine launchers , 1,700 aircraft (including all night bombers), 5,000 railway locomotives, 150,000 railcars and 5,000 road trucks.

The surrender of arms reminds me of the words from Micah 4:3 in the bible – words often read on Remembrance Sunday.

'They shall beat their swords into ploughshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more' Micah 4:3

The surrender of all weapons and all war ceasing. A sentiment that seems impossible and yet we long for it. We pray for it. And in the mean time we honour those who have fought and died and those who continue to serve.

At the going down of the sun - We will remember them.

Thank you to all those who supported the Harvest Lunch in Fovant's Village Hall on 23rd September. It was a very happy occasion and very well attended. We have been able to send £352 to Team Rubicon, the Disaster Response charity based in Chilmark. In their grateful letter of thanks we were told that a team had already been sent to Indonesia following the recent Tsunami.

A big thank you to all the cooks who donated the cottage pies and fruit crumbles and - just as important - all those many cheerful people who put away the tables and squeezed into the busy kitchen to help us clear up.

We are so lucky to have such a well equipped hall.

THE RIDE & STRIDE FOR WILTSHIRE'S HISTORIC CHURCHES

A further thank you goes to all those who generously sponsored Anthea, Celia and Felicity for their walk on 8th September. The final sum we collected was a splendid £900. Amazing. Half this money will be returned to help with the many repairs for our own Church and half goes into a fund to help other Churches in Wiltshire.

FP

— STAMPS for CHARITY —

Thanks to villagers and their friends who have either donated their stamp collections or who have been putting aside used postage stamps from home and abroad, £1580 was given to Naomi House Childrens' Hospice in the five years or so leading up to June 2018. The benefits from the sale of such items are now being sent to the MRI Scanner element of the Salisbury Hospital Stars Appeal Fund, with £75 donated since July this year.

With Christmas approaching, please save those used postage stamps on your cards, letters and parcels for us. Let Mike Carey (01722 714633) know if you would like him to collect any stamps you have saved - or drop them off to him at 2 Home Close, Sutton Road, Fovant SP3 5LS.

Spring Orchard Surgery Newsletter October 2018

This month's newsletter is all about flu - or more specifically the annual flu immunisation programme and why it matters.

The flu virus mutates rapidly, which is why people need to be immunised every year. We are lucky in the UK as we can use data from Australia to guide planning in the UK, as their winter matches our summer and comes 6 months earlier.

The immunisation is produced in labs using the freshest evidence on which strain of flu is most likely to become virulent each year. It can be quite an anxious time waiting for our delivery of the flu vaccines as it is such a fast turnaround from identifying what strain of flu should be in the vaccine, to the labs producing the vaccines, to getting them distributed to the whole of the UK.

Each year there are refinements in how best to immunise the population. The main difference this year is that we now have 2 types of adult vaccine. One - called trivalent has been allocated to over 65s based on evidence that this age group will respond best to this particular form of vaccine. Another - called quadrivalent will be age for at-risk adults under age 65. The third type is a nasal spray of live vaccine. This is used for children (aged 2-17), as they respond best to this form of the vaccine.

A common response from patients when offered a flu jab is "Oh, I don't need one I never get flu". Please can you consider the following message - some people can become carriers or reservoirs of flu virus without showing symptoms. This increases the risk of other people contracting flu from you - and these people may become very poorly if they contract flu. It is why all health workers are immunised against flu - we have many contacts every day with people who will not cope well with flu, and it is part of our care for others to make sure we don't pass the infection on.

Another common response is "I had the flu jab once and I got the flu". The flu jab for adults contains dead (or more accurately 'deactivated') virus. All it does is expose your immune system to the proteins in the flu virus so that when you come into contact with the actual flu infection you are already several steps ahead in mounting the immune response which will kill off the infection. You can't catch flu from dead virus.

We can all do our bit for the whole community if we have the flu jab - imagine that the next person you stand next to at the supermarket is on chemotherapy, or is a toddler who is too young to be immunised - by having the flu jab you will be helping towards what is called 'herd immunity'. Target immunisation rates are set at 75% for all eligible populations and this will reduce the circulating virus levels. This is an indirect way of protecting people from flu, but relies on enough people in the wider community taking up the offer of the flu jab to be effective.

A reminder - these age groups are routinely offered the flu vaccination

- Adults 65 and over (including adults over 18 at risk of flu)
- Pregnant women
- Children aged 2 and 3
- Children in reception class and school years 1,2,3,4 and 5
- Children aged 2 to 17 years at risk of flu.

And what are the risk groups?

I think the best way to think of this, is that these are people for whom developing pneumonia would be dangerous or difficult to recover from, and may require hospital admission

- Respiratory diseases - asthma when on regular inhaled steroids, COPD, bronchiectasis
- Cardiac disease - such as heart failure
- Chronic kidney disease
- Chronic liver disease such as hepatitis
- Neurological conditions such as MS, Parkinson's, motor neurone disease
- Diabetes
- Previous splenectomy
- A weakened immune system - HIV, regular steroid tablets, chemotherapy, DMARDs such as methotrexate
- Being seriously overweight (BMI of 40 or above)

At Spring Orchard surgery we currently have 729 patients who are eligible for flu immunisation.

Please come along to the dedicated immunisation session on 13th October (Saturday morning 09:00 to 11:00) so you can get your flu jab in time for winter.

Please note: Children and under 18s will be invited to a separate clinic at Wilton Old Orchard surgery as all the nasal spray vaccines are being stored there.

Ambulances and some fire engines carry them, and the parish council discussed this item last year and

Nutrition and More

I heard on the news today that the government wants to fortify all flour with folic acid to try and reduce the increasing incidence of spina bifida in newborn babies. Folic acid is the manufactured form of folate (vitamin B9) which is used in supplements. Folate itself is found in leafy greens especially dark green plants. This is where it gets its name from - folate/foilage. It is also found in legumes (beans, peas and lentils), citrus fruits, egg yolks, asparagus, beetroot, broccoli and Brussels sprouts.

It has been known for many years that a low level of folate in early pregnancy is an important risk factor for the birth of a baby with spina bifida – but there are others. These include: Family history, some medications taken by the mother (especially anti-convulsants), maternal diabetes which may cause poor blood sugar control/raised blood sugar levels, pre-pregnancy obesity, raised body temperature in early pregnancy (from fever/saunas etc) and lower socioeconomic status – where the link may be inability to afford adequate nutrition. A developing foetus needs all the nutrition it can get in order to build a healthy body and brain and will rob its mother if she is not supplying sufficient via her diet. Many a pregnant mum who says that pregnancy has made her “stupid” may well be losing essential omega 3 fats from her brain in order that the baby may develop its own.

As I have said so often before, getting nutritious food nowadays can be extremely difficult because of industrialized/chemicalized farming and food processing and it doesn't seem sensible to supplement one single vitamin rather than tackling the “disaster area” that our food chain has become – though it may be a useful “stop-gap” until we can all buy food which we know will do us good rather than harm. Sadly, there is no way to tell which foods these are today, because they are all presented to look wonderful and we have no way of knowing whether they are nutrient depleted – other than taking the trouble to buy from a grower/producer who does the job right and will answer the questions we ask about this.

Two of the other risk factors noted above (I got the list from the Mayo clinic in the USA – and the NHS information is almost identical) are pre-pregnancy obesity and poor blood sugar control which are entirely food related. I have written often about refined carbohydrates/starches which after digestion, rapidly arrive in the bloodstream as glucose and confuse the pancreas into producing too much insulin to deal with the excess blood sugar. This can then cause a drop in blood sugar – and eventual “insulin resistance” if this happens regularly. Insulin resistance is now recognized as being involved in the development of obesity and type 2 diabetes. Our advised low fat/high carbohydrate diets are implicated in this.

This is beautifully illustrated, with appropriate graphs, in a study done by a fellow student on my nutrition course with himself as the subject: On day one, after fasting for 18 hours, he ate a large amount of white potato mashed with butter and accompanied by some oily fish (fat and protein). His blood sugar measurements rose a little and then returned to normal in a gentle curve – just as it should. On day two (after the same length of fasting) he ate the same amount of potato accompanied by some carrots to make up the same bulk (no fat or protein). His blood sugar rose rapidly, far above normal, making him “sweaty” and then dropped rapidly below normal levels making him feel “weak and shaky”. Potato, a very starchy food, digests quickly - just like white flour/white rice/sugar products.

Good Health!

Member of the Pre-school Learning Alliance

We're delighted to report on another successful Sutton Mandeville Horticultural Society Summer Show which this year was held on 1st September in the Fovant Village Hall.

Whilst the big challenge to growers in 2017 had been the amount of rainfall, this year of course it was all about sun, heat and lack of rain. But we weren't complaining, and the excellent number and quality of show entries suggested no-one else was either, even if one or two specific categories had clearly suffered – notably onions and shallots (and sausage rolls?!).

The prize cups were presented by David Willis, Chair of the SMHS, with the Banksian Medal and Sidney Mullins Cup going to Bernard Allnutt, who dominated the Vegetable and Fruit categories, the Resident's Cup being awarded to Ivy Spencer for the most points in the Flowers categories, and the President's Trophy – for Flower Arrangements – going jointly to Sue Dixon and Cynnie Willis.

The Challenge Cup for Photography was awarded to Emma Firth, the Jubilee Rose Bowl for the most points in Domestic categories went to Jane Deverell and the Lappage Cup for the best Village Tray of Vegetables was won by Ralph Dicker, who was also awarded Best in Show.

The most points in the children's categories were won by Poppy Firth who was awarded the Mandeville Cup, and the Mrs Lodge Silver Plate for the winner of the Prize Recipe went to Merryn Smee.

See the attached sheet for the full list of winners by class.

Our sincere thanks to everybody who entered and visited the show this year, to everyone who generously donated raffle prizes – including the very lovely prize donated by The Greater Good pub - and to everyone who kindly helped out by moving furniture, setting up, clearing up and all of the other jobs that go towards making this a such a lovely local event. We look forward to seeing you again next year!

Clerk

Clerk to send letter which Cllr Holmes will hand deliver.

- (ii) Parking on Tisbury Road near the Elms. There are less cars obstructing the pavement but there is still an issue.
The residents association will meet on 18th October, WC Cllr Mrs Green and a WC officer from housing will also attend.
It has been confirmed that there is a drainage pipe running in the front so nothing can be done between the houses (nos 3-6) and the footpath.
- (iii) 20mph limit. Next steps to encourage compliance with the new 20mph limit. The pole for the SID will be in place shortly.
- (iv) High Street / A30 junction. To receive an update. Update due at the next CATG.
- (v) Parish Steward List. To agree items to be added to the Parish Steward list. Cllrs are reminded that any issues relating to the highway should be reported to Wiltshire Council using the app or the online report it button on the WC website.
Fovant PC was made aware that a speeding cyclist had a near miss with a pedestrian, whilst Fovant PC is aware there is little to prevent this parishioners are advised to be aware that cyclists do travel quite quickly around the lanes.

Update of actions from the Minutes dated 4th September 2018.

1. (0288.iv) Clerk is in the process of opening the 32 day notice account.
 2. (0291.iii) The person suggested by WC Cllr Green has retired.
 3. (0291.iv) Clerk has been unable to email Mr Hitchings so wrote a letter
 4. (0292.i) Clerk wrote the letter but before it was delivered Cllr Holmes spoke to the householder – to be monitored.
 5. (0292.i) Clerk resent the article to the Three Towers
 6. (0293.3) Transferring ownership of land from WC – as yet no update.
- All other actions appear as agenda items.

To receive brief reports from Cllrs

Rights of Way – tree blocking path in Hole Lane, Clerk to write to landowner.
Cllr Mallalieu will do a land registry search for the landowner.

Highways – metrocount in Dinton Rd. Clerk to look when it can be done and submit request. Clerk

Police – the quarterly community safety group meeting was held on 5th September. The next meeting will be on 9th January.

Village Hall – meeting on 4th Oct will discuss funding and fence.

Website – no issues reported.

The Elms Residents association – next meeting on 18th October

Cllr Mallalieu attended the Tisbury CLT meeting – this is an interesting idea but the meeting was focussed on Tisbury rather than surrounding parishes. A parish can set up its own CLT if it so wished.

Community Speed Watch. Cllr Holmes as Team Leader for Fovant CSW group gave the following information.

Three sessions have been carried out since 23rd September, two at Middle Ground and one at High Street.

20% of vehicles travelling up Dinton Rd were driving in excess of 25mph and details were sent to the Police for action.

In total 17 vehicles were driven at 25mph and reported out of a total 202 vehicles passing the control points in both directions.

In addition the Clerk was aware of a proposal from Trowbridge TC which would move Fovant (and Compton Chamberlayne) into Nadder, additional parishes would be moved into Chalke. WC Mrs Green was unaware of this proposal but was aware of a suggestion to move South Newton and Great Wishford into Nadder.
Fovant PC considered all the information.
Fovant PC resolved to make no comment.

Centenary of 1918. This year marks the centenary of the end of the First World War.

(i) To consider quotes for the addition of two names on the War Memorial.
One quote has been received and the work can be completed by 11th November. The total to add both names and paint the letters is £482.00.
As this is under £500 only one quote is required.
Fovant PC resolved to accept the quote and authorise the work. Clerk

(ii) To receive an update on the planting of trees along the A30.
As yet no further information on the landowner.
Cllr Mallalieu will do a land registry search. Cllr Mallalieu

Recreation and Play area

To consider the following;

1. Fence surrounding the play area – to receive an update.
Cllr Havard went to repair the damaged fence but found there was no longer a requirement as a second fence has been put up. The boundary needs to be checked. Cllr Swift
However another part of the fence has been damaged so fenceposts were used to repair this.
Cllr Havard will get quotes for replacement fence. Cllr Havard
2. See saw maintenance.
Cllr Havard has oiled the seesaw and it no longer squeaks.
3. Maintenance of seats on the swings. An initial inspection showed no concerns.
Fovant PC resolved to wait for the inspection report and then consider the swing seats. Ongoing
4. Repainting of the equipment.
Fovant PC resolved to purchase some tins of bright paint suitable for play equipment.
The items will be rubbed down and repainted.

7.52pm – Cllr Dunn left the meeting.

5. Cleaning / maintenance of the equipment. Cllr Havard has cleaned the equipment,
Fovant PC wished to record their thanks to Cllr Havard for all the work he has undertaken in the recreation ground and play area.

Community Noticeboard. Item requested by Cllr Mallalieu

The village hall committee would like an additional noticeboard for public notices.
Cllr Holmes suggested the existing village hall notice board is moved to the same side as the PC noticeboard and then a new noticeboard could be placed on the other wall.
Cllr Mallalieu will raise this at the village hall committee meeting and feedback to Fovant PC.
The VHMC need to supply exact details for the new noticeboard including size and format.

Highway matters.

- (i) Overgrown hedges within the parish. These continue to be an issue. Cllrs are requested to note any hedges that encroach the highway and report these at the meeting so further action can be taken. If the Landowner fails to cut back the hedge that encroaches onto the highway the matter will be passed to WC highways and legal departments.
The hedge on Dinton road has been partially cutback but further work is required as it still overhangs the highway making large vehicles travel too close to the property on the opposite side.
