September. Why “Back to School” notices go up in supermarkets as soon as the summer holidays begin I have never understood - teachers and pupils deserve their rest! As this month starts, there will have been many excited and somewhat nervous people beginning a new school year, taking up a new college place, starting a new job. For some it will mean a move away to a hall of residence and beginning life with a different group of people. We congratulate all those who took exams - it is a great milestone to have passed through and we wish you all well on the path forward that you have chosen. And everyone should be very proud of the fruits of their labours.

Autumn brings so many rewards. It's a time of great fruitfulness. The crops in fields have already been gathered but there are apples, blackberries and hazelnuts in abundance all around us and allotments are bursting at the edges. I love the Tisbury tradition of placing ‘Help yourself’ notices out on wheelbarrows and boxes with whatever is in glut. It's not just about “me” but about ‘us’.

Somehow the seasonal changes are expected, reassuring and they bring us together rather than divide us. We accept the passing from summer to autumn with gratitude and excitement. We were made to be fruitful. Yet, this is best when we act together.

Anyone who has ever helped at harvest time knows just how backbreaking it can be ... whether in the old days of shifting bales and potato sacks by hand - or in these days of handling huge machinery and working such long days. At times like these we really appreciate working together, being looked after, coming together in community.

Christians see these gifts as God given. Even the rain. Psalm 65 has some fabulous verses which recall the great gifts of God in rain and harvest - “You water the furrows abundantly settling the ridges and softening it with showers and blessing its growth. You crown the year with your goodness.”

Throughout parishes in the Nadder Valley this month we will be sharing in thanksgiving to God for the fruits of the land in Harvest Festivals in our churches and over harvest meals; with produce and donations going to feed others. Do join us - it is a great tradition and good to honour both our God, Creator and Father and to give thanks for the efforts of all those who produce our food and think about how to provide for those who do not have enough.

The season of “Creationtide” runs through the whole of September and ends on the Feast of St Francis on October 4th. During this time, there is a renewed focus on our care of creation, our use of resources and how we live in ways that are harmonious with the planet. All this involves changes which people are often happy to make; once they discover the benefits of living well outweigh the disadvantages. It is about living with others in mind.

Development of ideas can really increase our fruitfulness and simple technologies can greatly improve the yield of crops. The basic technology used in drilling boreholes for villages in Malawi and in parts of Tanzania has resulted not only in greater yield of crops which can be properly irrigated but also has greatly reduced waterborne diseases. It has even provided children with time for school as they no longer have to spend two hours a day seeking water.

Small changes can make a huge difference. And as we journey through this season, may we embrace the adventure together. Jesus tells us not to fear - but to know that each step of the way he is with us. Travel with joy, travel together.

Revd Joanna Naish

Flamenco arms and Rumba hips

When Gemma first started her Fit Steps classes, I came along not knowing quite what to expect. An exercise class inspired by “Strictly”? – Would we be all glammed up, flinging each other round the floor?

I need not have worried – it’s really just a fun way to get a work out through dance steps. The best thing about Fit Steps is the chance to learn a variety of dances: from Flamenco to Fox Trot, Bossa Nova to American Smooth. Nobody is keeping a score and there are no sequins. We just have plenty of laughs learning all the different styles under Gemma’s ever-patient guidance.

For me, it is as much about the opportunity to build flexibility and co-ordination as the aerobic side. Gemma offers both the more vigorous and slightly gentler “all bodies” version of Fit Steps. The “full fat” one is faster paced; “all bodies” offers stretch with a bit less impact, but more time to explore the grace of the steps.

If you’re after inspiration for your “new term” fitness, why not give Fit Steps a try? Gemma has put her schedule below. Keekeep Dancing!

The Annual sponsored "Ride & Stride" takes place on 14th September this year. It is held annually to help the Wiltshire Historic Churches Trust assist with the many repairs to our local Church buildings. We have been helped in Fovant several times over the years. Celia Haselgrove and Felicity Pinder will be trying to visit as many Churches as they can in one day,

If anyone would like to join us or to do their own walk do let us know. It makes a perfect family day out! Half the money we raise will go to the Trust and half comes back to help look after our own Church. These lovely old buildings in so many villages all need endless help, so anything you can give will be most gratefully received.

St George's 50/50 Club – The Fovant Lottery

November 2019- October 2020

Thank you to all those who have supported the lottery during the present cycle of 12 draws which will end with the draw on 17 October.. We hope that you will rejoin for the draws in the following 12 months and that we shall also be welcoming new members.

An application form for the next 12 draws will be delivered to every household in the first week of October.

As many of you already know the lottery helps to ensure that we continue to have our church building in Fovant. 50% of the money raised is used as prize money and the other 50% is used to help maintain St George's Church building and churchyard. With your help this year we have been able to contribute over £800 towards the continuous and considerable costs of maintaining our ancient building.

All members of the 50/50 Club have an equal chance of winning a prize in the monthly draws. THE LARGER THE NUMBER OF MEMBERS/SHARES PURCHASED, THE GREATER THE SIZE OF THE PRIZES!

The first draw of the new session will be on 14 November. PLEASE REMEMBER TAT THE NEW APPLICATION FORM MUST BE RETURNED BEFORE 31 OCTOBER IF YOUR NUMBER IS TO BE INCLUDED IN THE DRAW.

Rules of the 50/50 Club

- 1, The cost of a 'share' is £12 for the next 12 draws (£1 per month) which must be paid in advance by 31 October.
2. Each household may purchase up to 4 shares, each allocated to a named person. No person under the age of sixteen may be named as a shareholder.
3. The Club needs a minimum of 100 share to be purchased if there are to be worthwhile prizes. If there are fewer the lottery will be cancelled and the money collected will be returned to the purchasers.
4. A number will be allocated to each share. The draw will take place in the village Hall during the weekly coffee morning, normally on the second Thursday in the month. Prizewinning numbers will be announced then and winners notified individually. Winning numbers will also be published in Three Towers..
5. 50% of the money subscribed (less costs of printing etc., annual lottery licence) will be given out as prizes at each draw. The remaining 50% will be used for the maintenance of St George's church fabric and the churchyard.
6. The accounts shall be subject to annual inspection by an independent person.

FOVANT BADGES SOCIETY - SUMMER WORKS 2019

For those of you who walk the footpath circuit of Brook Street and follow the path adjacent to the Holloway up to the Drove and back along East Farm's track, and those who still stop at the A30 lay-by on occasion now that Terry Lister has manfully trimmed the hedge to open up the view again, I hope that you notice the majority of the Fovant Badges are looking crisper and better defined.

Over the first weekend of August the Badges profiles were assessed and road-spray painted to indicate what should actually be 'green' and what 'white'. With the complex and demanding nature of the setting out I was very grateful to have the expert help of Tim Martin, and of our newest Trustee Helen Roberts, who many of you will know brought the Compton Down Map of Australia back to life last year with the Map of Australia Trust. As ever F.B.S are grateful to Ed and Sue Williams for their constant help and assistance in the maintenance of these Schedule Monuments and War Memorials.

For the reference data and photographs of the Badges in older times F.B.S. are indebted to the FHIG and their archive; it was invaluable. Indeed, FHIG lent F.B.S. several irreplaceable items by which we could illustrate F.B.S.' scope and tasks at the Sutton Mandeville Heritage Trust's 'Open Tent' day on Toby Green's field. A valuable resource which we are fortunate to still have within the village.

'W' from 'Royal Wiltshire Yeomanry'

In the first week of August 5 Rifles spent a very full day bringing the Badge profiles closer to the original Badges as created. Years of maintenance had resulted in a certain amount of 'profile drift' such that several letters and features had become an approximation of the Badge itself and of the original design representation as created on the hill.

B Coy (Company) of 5 Rifles, commanded by Maj. Daniel Brown, brought 16 riflemen under Lt. Marcus Wood, assisted by Cpl. Penny, to the hill bright and early and got straight to work after a safety and scope of works briefing. Four badges were dealt with before lunch and a further three, plus some additional chalk to the YMCA after. After a profound thank you from the Fovant Badges Society, the company left for barracks, then their following 'Salamanca Day', and then well-earned leave before Baltic deployment. We are very grateful for this help in such a busy schedule.

The work on the Badges is always interesting, and this was no exception. Apart from the stunning landscape and wonderful views north and west, the grassland was a profusion of wild flowers and a huge number of butterflies danced in the sunshine, which contrary to forecast, stayed with us until close of play. All around we saw rain clouds and the grey curtains sweeping across the landscape to the north, but we were spared. Several hares had made nesting scrapes around the Badges and bolted at amazing speed across what the soldiers themselves said was 'demanding terrain' (I paraphrase).

But the most gratifying of all our small discoveries and sights came at the very end, working on the Devonshire Badge, the western most of the 10. The central feature had morphed into a squarish block. It was intended to represent a castle, whose central Tower was by false perspective higher than the two at the edge, to indicate corner rampart and two walls between the three towers. Tentatively we cleared turf and debris in what, by a scaled Drone photograph, taken by Graham Coleman and the good offices and Adam Clutterbuck, who attached a white 1 m 'scale' to the wire fence at each photograph of each badge, we believed was the original, intended, and true representation of the actual cap badge.

There was no precise photographic evidence available to say that the old images we had were not an original design approximation of the 'castle'. It was with some trepidation but much delight we discovered two steel setting out pins, driven deep into the chalk where we had heuristically marked the central tower with our spray paint. The three distinct Towers were part of the cap badge, and had been part of the design set out and then executed by the Devonshires many years ago, and now are so again.

Recent research has found little written evidence of the Devonshire Regiment being at Fovant, although the presence of the badge (believed to have been created sometime after February 1917) shows they were. Two of the 63 First World War burials at St Georges church are from the Devonshire Regiment – Private S.K Crome who died on 4th November 1918 and Private George Ashley who died two days later. If any readers have any information we would love to hear from you, please contact us via our web site or through this Newsletter.

We have been busy improving our reach via social media, starting with Twitter and have looked at a couple of the badges in more detail. We will be adding this to the website soon (and you can see the Tweets via a link on our website), but in the meantime, have a look at our Twitter pages @fovantbadges – you do not need to have a Twitter account to view, but follow us if you can to stay completely up to date with news.

Fovant Badges Society would very much like to encourage local involvement and ownership of the Badges on our doorstep. We are hoping to take a more 'hands on' approach in the future establishing a group of volunteers who would be prepared to come up onto the Downs and help us maintain the badges. I can't think of better words than those of Mr George Butters, Head of Historic Properties, English Heritage, when, speaking of the new footbridge at Tintagel Castle on the 7th of August 2019 he said "... What we are trying to do is get people to care about heritage. We want people to really engage with their heritage, because if you don't care and you don't engage, who is going to look after this in a 100 years time?..."

So if you are interested by what you have seen here and want to help with what you see from the A30, please keep an eye out in these pages for the opportunities we hope will arise for joining together with others similarly interested in keeping our unique and incredible heritage alive and shining above our valley.

Nutrition and More

I see that the Government would like us to reduce our intake of “red meat” in order to prevent the exacerbation of climate change by the methane which cattle belch up!

I suspect that reducing the numbers of cattle and other animals on farms will have a negative rather than a positive effect on the amount of carbon (in the form of carbon dioxide) in the atmosphere because the presence of animals on the land, and their grazing and their manure, improves the condition of the soil and makes it better able to sequester carbon – which it should be doing but is unable to do properly because of the degradation produced by all the chemical sprays.

I have yet to be convinced that excess carbon dioxide is the cause of our so-called “global warming”. It is part of the essential Cycle of Life which enables life (including us) to exist on this planet. Plants and trees absorb carbon dioxide through their leaves and, via the process of photosynthesis, which needs light from the sun and some nutrients from the soil, are able to produce the nutrients they need to grow, survive and thrive and they produce oxygen as a waste product – enabling all the other life on earth to breathe this and also survive and thrive. Excess carbon which is not needed travels via the plant roots into the soil to be stored safely.

If there is too much carbon dioxide in the atmosphere it is because we have allowed the felling of forests all over the world so there are not enough trees to absorb it all and the soils are too damaged to store it as they should. How they work out that having fewer farm animals will improve the situation I just don't understand?

On the subject of eating less meat I believe that it is probably better for our health to eat a bit less – and to take the trouble to source our meat from healthy animals which are allowed to forage for their natural food as they would have done in the wild. I only buy meat from animals which have been properly and kindly raised and fed on their natural diet. I can be sure about this by buying organic meat or asking the vendors about how they raise their animals if I am buying from a farmer's market. Properly raised meat can be more expensive – and I appreciate how lucky I am not to have to worry too much about cost – but it is so much better for our health. A small portion of this – say about the size of the palm of my hand – on the dinner plate with the rest of the plate filled with a good variety of vegetables or salad is ideal. I serve this four or five days a week. On the other days the protein portion of the meal will be fish/seafood, eggs or cheese with vegetables/salad. I am a firm believer that humans are omnivores, though I accept that some people can be extremely healthy on a vegetarian or vegan diet provided that it is carefully balanced and composed of “Real Food”.

I came across a new recycling opportunity this week that I would like to tell everyone about. If you search online for: “Recycling for Wiltshire Air Ambulance” you will get to a site which will show you how things like coffee pods, biscuit and crisp packets and baby and pet food pouches can be turned into smart garden furniture and planters. There are lists of “drop off” points where we can take the items for recycling. They pay money to Wiltshire Air Ambulance for the stuff that is collected. Do please explore this and help a very good cause – and the environment. Thank you!

Good Health!

GLASSES LANE

What a disgrace that this vulnerable location has been targeted once again.

It is a case for prosecution as any fly tipping is unlawful but remember it is the householder that gets charged and fined. Only today I have been told that WC is actively taking people to court and hefty fines are being imposed.

Always check that the person taking the waste has a carrier's licence, take details of the van number and note a description of the persons taking the waste. This also applies to any scrap metal collection.

Residents can report anyone who they believe is an unlicensed waste collector using Wiltshire Councils online reporting tool My Wiltshire. see below.

"FILgroup meeting July

On a beautiful warm and sunny evening, FILgroup hosted a summer get together in the garden of Gervase House to mark the last meeting before the summer break. Everyone was asked to bring one plate of food, savoury or sweet, and as the event was well attended by friends old and new, the buffet table ended up laden with delicious salads, meats, savouries and puddings. FILgroup provided the drinks and the prosecco, rose and lager flowed freely. Proceeds from the raffle went to our charity of the year Edukaid.

The next meeting will be on the 12th September and will be "Memoirs of a Fovant Land Girl". All are welcome so why not join us and step back in time to Fovant in the 40's and 50's. Should be fun! For further information please email filgroup15@gmail.com.

Hedges and trees are so easy to plant, and we forget how fast they grow, particularly in a year like this. The cost of pruning and cutting an out of control hedge is so much more than keeping it regularly cut.

The Music Makers of London concert St. John's church Tisbury

A musical date for your diaries is an upcoming concert called 'Sun, Moon and Stars' on 19th October 2019 at St. John's Church Tisbury. It will be performed by the Music Makers of London, who are a mixed voice chamber choir specialising in a cappella (unaccompanied) music. As a charity with the remit of extending an understanding of music, the Music Makers have undertaken a number of projects with different communities, including invitations to work with trainee conductors at the Royal Academy of Music, funding a young choral scholar to sing with the choir each year, and sponsoring three composition competitions to support the new music-making. Some of these have been very inventive; in one case singing a new piece in Cornish! It also enjoys working with community choirs, performing in many locations over the past five years.

The concert programme is on the theme of 'Sun, Moon and Stars', which includes music by Grieg, Parry and Saint-Saens through to some more recent songs. How many pieces can you think of that feature the sun, moon or stars? Perhaps start with 'Moon River' and you can see the terrific scope for this concert. Tickets can be bought in advance online at <https://stjohntisbury.eventbrite.com> or at the Music Makers website <https://www.musicmakersoflondon.org.uk/music>, where you can also listen to some of their previous recordings.

HIGH LEVEL CPT UPDATES

Incidents of note:

- On 4th July a drone was shot down in the Share Lane area of North Tisbury. A male has been interviewed regarding the offence and the investigation is on going. Please be aware that the 'remote' pilot of a drone has the responsibility for satisfying him or herself that the flight can be conducted safely. The aircraft must not be flown over or within:
 - 150 metres of any congested area
 - 150 metres of any organized open-air assembly of more than 1,000 persons
- Or within:
 - 50 metres of any vessel, vehicle or structure that is not under the control of the person in charge of the aircraft
 - 50 metres of any person except during take-off or landing
 - 30 metres of any person except for the person in charge of the aircraft

Details of UK restricted airspace can be found at www.skydemonlight.com

Burglaries:

There were three burglaries and two break-ins to vehicles during the month of July; three of these relate to the theft of Power Tools. Unfortunately, as there was no evidence to provide lines of enquiry such as witnesses, CCTV etc., none of the five has resulted in an arrest and all are officially recorded as 'undetected'.

PRIORITIES FOR WILTSHIRE WEST CPT

Burglaries: Although the number remains low we are looking to encourage owners of desirable items to consider all security options. Crime Prevention advice is circulated regularly by Wiltshire Police via Police Websites, Police Facebook, Twitter and Community Messaging. Meanwhile, have you considered joining Neighbourhood/Farm Watch?

Community Speed Watch (CSW):

Every two weeks, four Community Speedwatch Schemes across West Wiltshire are selected for CPT support to supplement sessions planned by the CSW team. In July four speed checks were conducted in Hindon.

To find out how to get involved in CSW please follow the link on the Wiltshire Police website. Watch out too for the development of a scheme centred on Tisbury Village.

Youth Anti-social behaviour and concerns of cannabis use: PCSO Turnbull and his colleague in Mere, PCSO Tscherniawsky, continue to patrol green spaces and other areas that children congregate in, to encourage the children to be respectful and considerate to all residents. They are working closely with neighbouring Forces where children attend senior schools to ensure a cohesive approach to any concerns that are raised.

HIGH LEVEL UPDATES FROM THE POLICE AND CRIME

COMMISSIONER

Pay increase - Police Officers are to receive a 2.5% pay increase as agreed by the Government. This is welcome news and well deserved, I only hope that the same increase is also afforded to police staff as well. However, it is expected that we will have to meet this increase from existing Wiltshire Police budgets and that no further funding will come from the Government to fund this rise, which is disappointing; I continue to lobby the Government for fairer funding in Wiltshire.

PCSOs - Last month Wiltshire Police Federation, which represents police officers within the Force, wrote an open letter suggesting that the Force should 'axe PCSOs' and recruit police constables instead. Both the Chief and I strongly refuted this suggestion. We both recognise the key role that PCSOs play in community engagement, intelligence gathering and supporting the most vulnerable. The role of a PCSO is a completely different one to that of a police constable and they play a key role in our community policing teams.

Additional police officers - I was pleased to hear the new Prime Minister's commitment to policing and his promise of 20,000 additional police officers in the next three years. We don't know what this will look like in terms of how many more we will get in Wiltshire but I trust that more detail will soon be forthcoming. I do have some concerns around the practicalities of recruiting so many officers in such a short period of time and it certainly won't happen overnight, with it taking around a year to recruit and train an officer before they're able to go on the beat, but his commitment to strengthening our police forces is welcome nonetheless

HIGH LEVEL FORCE UPDATES

Youth crime: A Government report into the increase in youth violence has been welcomed by the Force.

Chief Constable Kier Pritchard has said that although there hasn't been a significant increase in Wiltshire, it is still a concerning issue for local people. He is calling for a multi-agency approach and focused on the need to engage with young people to help prevent them from falling into a life of crime.

Rural crime: Wiltshire has bucked the national trend when it comes to rural crime, recording a 36% year-on-year drop when it comes to the amount of money this type of crime is costing people in the county. This is believed to be due to the focus our Rural Crime Team has placed on crime prevention advice, including the encouragement of CCTV, anti-poaching ditches and the installation of GPS trackers on equipment.

Domestic abuse: As part of our Summer Demand campaign, we have been focusing on highlighting the important topic of domestic abuse and making sure victims know how to access the support available. There is also a focus on encouraging friends and neighbours to report concerns to the police. You can read more online at:

We are aiming to have a minimum of 100 entries in the parade & are asking you, the community to get involved & be part of this wonderful celebration. If you are not keen on dressing up & walking the parade there is a great deal to be done behind the scenes, such as making & decorating floats, paperwork, collections, marshalling, preparing & serving refreshments & much more... We would love to have you & any ideas you may have onboard. If you would like to find out more simply follow our Facebook page 'Tisbury Carnival', visit our website, email us at tisburycarnival@outlook.com or phone our Chairperson Charlotte Castle on 01747 820673.

Town & Rural Planning is a complex, involved and ever changing subject. Decisions made by Local Planning Authorities have a long lasting impact on all towns, villages, the countryside and local communities, especially within Areas of Outstanding Natural Beauty.

This course is aimed at parish and town councillors and their officers, community and volunteer organisations, parish clerks, development management planners and local residents.

The training will take an interactive approach based on presentations, workshop, case studies, discussions and the development of a group action plans. There will be morning, afternoon and lunchtime breaks and time for informal discussions. The course will include:

- How your Parish Council influences planning policy and decisions
- The planning application process & the types of applications
- Role of Local & Neighbourhood Plans
- Appeals and public inquiries
- Permitted development & exemptions in AONBs
- What can go wrong!

The course will be delivered by Simon Williams MBE, BSc, DipTP, MSc, MRTPI, a Chartered Town Planner with over 35 years' experience in planning, in a number of local authorities in England & Wales.

Simon has been self-employed as Footprint Futures – Planning & Regeneration for the past six years. He was a Local Authority Head of Planning & Regeneration in Dorset for many years and has extensive experience of delivering such training to Elected Members at District, Town and Parish levels across the UK. He has also been a visiting lecturer at a number of Universities and delivered many presentations on a wide range of subjects.

Simon will be supported by Richard Burden BSc DipCons MSc FLI CMCIPD CMCMI(rtd) PPLI, Principal Landscape and Planning Officer at Cranborne Chase AONB and Linda Nunn BA MSc MCMA FCMI, Joy Griffiths Award 2017, Director, Cranborne Chase AONB.

Course Overview

Pressure for development is increasing all the time and it is important that Councillors exercise sound and balanced judgments when making observations on developments that will affect their locality, and that these judgments and decisions are based on Planning Policies and other 'Material Planning Considerations'. This is particularly important in an AONB where there is a statutory obligation to conserve and enhance the natural beauty of the designated landscape.

Why should you attend?

If you've ever had to respond to a planning application, need help with your application or the creation of your Neighbourhood Plan then this is the course for you.

Sound planning recommendations are essential for the proper working of any Local Town/Parish Council, both to ensure that the Council responds in an informed and professional manner, which is valued by the Local Planning Authority, and to protect the reputation of the Authority. Developing good working relationships between Councillors commenting upon planning applications and those advising them is also critical. Providing, maintaining and improving training in planning for both town councillors and officers is therefore an important requirement for all authorities.

Attendees will also be provided with the Footprint Futures document, 'Material Planning Considerations' electronically, for use with their own organisations, as well as examples of case studies and will be sent the 'Group Action Plan' following the training session. This seminar can count towards Continuing Professional Development and a certificate of attendance can be provided.

Tickets cost £48 / delegate (including VAT) - cheque or cash preferred

A reduced fee of £24 will apply for all additional delegates from the same parish or organisation

Lunch and refreshments are included in the delegate fee and are provided by local caterer, Mary York

To attend, please register your interest with Shirley Merrick shirleymerrick@cranbornechase.org.uk

Or go to our web site www.ccwwdaonb.org.uk and download the booking form
