Stories of transformed lives in Dorset and Wiltshire

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND
DIOCESE OF SALISBURY

Jan/Feb 2019

Following in His footsteps

This January, 15 of our Curates joined Bishop Nicholas, his Chaplain Tony Monds, and our Chaplain to the Deaf and Hard of Hearing, Neil Robinson on a special Pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

Among the group, who literally walked in the footsteps of our Lord, were Andy Muckle from Gillingham and Milton-on-Stour, and Jane Palmer from Trowbridge St James and Keevil.

"The whole journey was held within the context of worship and prayer," Andy said.

"We prayed daily, not only for our pilgrimage, but for those we had left behind, the peace of this troubled region and the wider world.

"In that way there was an interconnectedness between our journey through this complex and beautiful Holy Land and the wider context of our lives.

"At many of the places we visited, the Bishop explored the Biblical story and placed it within the narrative of our modern world and those connections and observations are something that will stay with me for a long time.

"One moment of the trip does stand out - we were taking a boat across the Sea of Galilee.

"To be in the place where Jesus walked on water and calmed the storm was a deeply spiritual experience.

Monthly Letter

The Rt Revd Nicholas Holtam
Bishop of Salisbury

Christmas came twice for the curates who went on pilgrimage to the Holy Land.

We arrived in Bethlehem on 6th January, Epiphany for us but for Orthodox Christians it was Christmas Eve. We went through a check point in the security wall between Israel and Palestine by Banksy's 'Walled Off Hotel'. "O little town of Bethlehem how still we see thee lie."

In the Church of the Nativity there was a big service, the equivalent of Midnight Mass I suppose, broadcast on TV. In the shepherd's fields we remembered the angels singing 'Glory to God and Peace on earth'. In Manger Square, along Star Street from our hotel, there was a huge Christmas tree and a mosque with the Islamic call to prayer.

We stood on the Mount of Olives experiencing the famous view of Jerusalem looking towards the gold Dome of Rock. It is a holy place for Muslims, Christians and Jews. Now only Muslims are allowed on what was the Temple Mount. Christians walk the Via Dolorosa, the way of the cross. Jews pray at the Western Wall, part of the second Temple destroyed in AD 70. We read Psalm 122 - 'O pray for the peace of Jerusalem' and we did. In its peace lies the world's peace.

In the north of Galilee we went to Caesarea Philippi. We were near the Lebanese and Syrian borders. The site had been called Banyas where there had been a temple to the god Pan who created confusion - panic - among the people. Peter declared Jesus is the messiah. Jesus said his followers are on the way of the cross. Who is Jesus and who are we?

We met pilgrims from around the world. In Cana, where Jesus at a wedding turned water into wine, we heard the prayers of Nigerian Christians that their country will become again a happy country. That is now my prayer for Brexit Britain.

Early in 2019, following in the way of Jesus, we pray for the peace of the world.

First Impressions

Meet our Diocesan Secretary, David Pain.

"I've been here nearly two weeks - it feels so much longer and I have been made so welcome, but it is early days and I still have a lot to learn.

"I am really excited about the work of the Diocese, which I have come to know through my parents, who have lived here over the last 30 years.

"Before coming here I worked for Christian Aid for 20 years, I was head of their Africa Programme, and now you may think Africa is a long way from Dorset and Wiltshire, but what I learnt there was how to work in and lead a dispersed organisation and how to make decisions together in a way that was true to the local context.

"Also how to do things well together when we needed to.

"I think that also applies here, where each parish is different, opportunities vary, but there are some things we need to decide on together and work together on.

"And one of the great things about the Diocese is its really big vision of what it means to be 'church' and a recognition that can be very varied in different parts of our area.

"Having a sense of being part of something bigger I think is really important because, having that sense of identity and belonging in a local place is really precious, but also knowing that we can pray, serve and grow together and support each other.

"And I'm really excited that even on first impressions this is a Diocese that is looking to the future - we have an extraordinary inheritance, our buildings and a story that literally goes back over a thousand years. We have strong ambitions of where we want to go as we pray-serve-grow, but also the challenge to make sure that what we want to do and the resources we have actually match each other.

"So we have to do some work on that.

"But as I start my role, it is all about learning more about the Diocese and I am really looking forward to getting to know people in the length and breadth of our Diocese."

Following in His footsteps

in which brought scripture to life. I will now have a much more realistic understanding of the geography of the places we read about in the Bible"

"Experiencing the different cultures and faiths in the Holy Land and in particular the complexity of Jerusalem and the divided territories of the Palestinians and the Israelis was extraordinary.

"One of my favourite moments was visiting the site on the Jordan where Jesus was baptised and we renewed our own baptism vows. Another was sailing across the Galilee and singing hymns using British sign language, joining in with Neil in his own language, praising God.

In the place where the Gospel was being brought to all people it felt really special joining in with the deaf community, experiencing that there is nothing that can separate us from the love of God. And personally, I renewed my own sense of vocation to sharing the good news of Jesus with all those on the margins of life.

"The most exciting thing for me though is that I'm coming home and able to say "I visited the tomb of Jesus and it is empty! Jesus is risen!" I can't wait to tell people it's true! The whole time I was there I kept hearing Jesus' words from John 20 v29 -

"Because you have seen Me, you have believed; blessed are those who have not seen and yet have believed."

“February’s ice and sleet- freeze the toes right off your feet!”

So sang the inimitable Flanders and Swann, after changing a rather sweet and sticky American poem, which suggested that rain would melt a frozen lake. I’m not sure which will prove to be right forecast, but we can be fairly sure that it will be one, or both of the above, as we await the outcome of the Brexit row (still unknown as I write!).

I don’t think I know anyone who looks forward to February with eager anticipation, coming as it does at the coldest time of the year. Even “the Brexit” won’t happen until the end of March, if you are looking forward to the end of that dispiriting moment in our history! The church’s year is only enlivened up by Candlemas, which is at least cheerful -it’s also the time of the Feast of the Presentation of Christ at the Temple at the beginning of the month -and the lesser festival of the commemoration of the Wiltshire poet George Herbert.

Unlike Milton and Shakespeare, Herbert has no great literary age named after him. His is a poetry of humility, integrity and self-examination, all of which rather suit this time of year. Nevertheless he is still “in some ways a pivotal figure: enormously popular, deeply and broadly influential, and arguably the most skillful”* of the devotional poets of his or any other era in England. Yet he did not set out to be a poet. A Welshman by birth, from a wealthy family, he was brought up in England and went to Trinity Cambridge, meaning to train as a priest, but after attracting the attention of the Crown he became a Member of Parliament, -I’m afraid today’s House could do with such a one!

However, in his 30s he gave up the secular world to be ordained and spent the rest of his short life in Bemerton parish, Salisbury, where he lived the life of a poor country parson, caring assiduously for the needy of his community. What he is best remembered for are his poems of Love. Note, they are not love poems but they look at God as the origin and epitome of Love. This, Love III is probably the best known

Love bade me welcome. Yet my soul drew back Guilty of dust and sin.

But quick-eyed Love, observing me grow slack
From my first entrance in,
Drew nearer to me, sweetly questioning
If I lacked anything.

‘A guest,’ I answered, ‘worthy to be here.’

Love said, ‘You shall be he.’

‘I the unkind, ungrateful? Ah my dear,
I cannot look on thee.’

Love took my hand, and smiling did reply,

‘Who made the eyes but I?’

‘Truth Lord; but I have marred them; let my shame
Go where it doth deserve.’

‘And know you not,’ says Love, ‘who bore the blame?’

‘My dear, then I will serve.’

‘You must sit down,’ says Love, ‘and taste my meat.’

So I did sit and eat.

This is a love that can warm us throughout whatever February or Brexit will throw at us, preparing us for the great outflowing of Love which will come at Easter.

Love’s blessing be upon you.

Rev. Mark Hayter

Treasurer's Report – Financial Year 1 Nov 2017 to 31 Oct 2018

I am pleased to report that we have made a profit this year. Our advertisers have done us proud, and we are very grateful to them for their continuing support. Please use the services of our advertisers – we rely on them for our income and they rely on you to support their businesses.

Our assets remain in good health, and we believe we have enough reserves to continue to produce the magazine for the foreseeable future.

As in previous years, our main expenditure has been on paper and printing ink. The average magazine size is 24 double-sided pages, so producing over 500 copies means printing in excess of 12,000 pages each month.

During the year we received donations totaling £225 from FIL Group, Fovant Chapel, and several individuals. Many thanks! We also received £217 from photocopying and the sale of Fovant History books.

Our editor Pauline ensures that each edition of the magazine includes notices of forthcoming events, reports on past events and, amongst other things, details of church services, parish council minutes and articles from various contributors (many thanks to the latter for adding variety to the magazine content).

Bernard Allnut has kindly completed an independent audit of the 2017-18 accounts, a copy of which is included in the magazine.

Several volunteers have helped with the monthly production of the magazine, and they (and many others) distribute the finished product to all the households in our three villages. Thank you to you all!!

Christmas Cards

Very many thanks to all of you who bought and/or donated towards the above. Kate Fergusson would have been thrilled as I am. The money collected will be going towards the training of a mid-wife. I shall be selling them again next Christmas, and to this end, if you have any cards that you are happy to have recycled and reused as part of raising funds, please either drop them off or let me know and I can collect.

The Challenge: The LMAX Exchange Everest Rugby Challenge takes place over 24 days in late April and will involve trekking to 6,500 metres before playing the highest game of rugby.

FILMS IN TISBURY

Nadder Centre

Weaveland Road 7pm

Action takes place in a country house in Russia at the start of the 20th century. The house belongs to Irina (Annette Bening) a famous but ageing actress. Her son Konstantin (Billy Howle) aa struggling young writer, envies his mother's lover, the famous writer Boris Trigorin (Corey Stall). Konstantin's fame-obsessed girlfriend Nina (Saoirse Roman) is enraptured by Trigorin's success and tries to seduce him. Masha (Elisabeth Moss) is in love with Konstantin and is loved by the silly schoolmaster Mikhail (Michael Segen) Directed by Michael Mayer from Chekhov's play and according to the "blurb" it is masterly and a great sense of the period.

DUMPING OF RUBBISH from cars and lorries in our lay-bys and verges footpaths and bridleways. Cars are the worst offenders on our roads. If you see it happening, please report it to police, parish councillor, or your neighbourhood watch representative.

Hedges and trees are so easy to plant, and we forget how fast they grow, particularly in a year like this. The cost of pruning and cutting an out of control hedge is so much more than keeping it regularly cut.

Nadder Oil Buying Club - Jan 2019 Newsletter

All good wishes to you for 2019. I hope that you will find some of the pointers below helpful and that you will forward the note to any friends, acquaintances or relatives in the Salisbury and Shaftesbury areas who may not know about the savings which NOBC can make on the cost of home heating oil. We now have just over 800 members with 900 tanks and that is after deducting the 100 or so members who have moved out of the area or converted to other forms of heating. The more members we have, the more important we become to our suppliers, so do please circulate this note. In 2017 we ordered 1.2M litres on behalf of members and in 2018, subject to final delivery confirmations, that will have risen to around 1.3M litres.

How it Works – A Reminder

Twice a month you receive an email inviting you to order heating Oil for delivery either during the first or second fortnight of the month. At this point you can opt to make your order urgent or leave it as standard. You can also specify additives, if you use an Aga or similar type of cooker.

You EITHER place an order, by clicking on the part of the email which says 'to order click here' OR you click on 'opt out' in which case you will not get reminders until the next round of orders is launched.

NOBC then approaches its suppliers with the total orders for the fortnight, currently around 60,000 litres and bids are then received.

NOBC then chooses the most competitive bid and appoints the supplier, after which you are sent an email, specifying which supplier has won the tender and giving you their contact details.

Deliveries then arrive in the following two weeks and you pay the supplier direct.

Communication. With over 800 members, it is only possible to run the club using software and communicating by email. Some of you have asked if it's possible to phone, but I am sure that you appreciate, that if that were to happen, it would lead to me making mistakes! If you know of people who would like to be members but are not IT savvy, then the best thing is for them to become a second tank on a neighbour's membership. If you do not receive the fortnightly invitations to order, you may find that emails are ending up in your junk mail. If that is not the case, drop me a line and we will see if the fault is in the system. Once you receive confirmation of the supplier and price, please feel free to communicate directly with them about delivery details.

Prices. We are normally competitive with, or cheaper than, competitor suppliers. I collect orders twice a month for delivery in the first or second fortnights of each month. If you find yourself short of oil, it is always worth dropping me an email, to see if I can get you an emergency delivery. It may not be as cheap as the bulk price, but it will certainly be cheaper than getting it direct from the supplier. However, the consolidated fortnightly orders are much more economical for the suppliers and reduce the number of tankers on our roads. The wholesale price of oil has been dropping since the middle of the autumn and this has resulted in a 10p per litre reduction in the price of heating oil. It has now started to rise again.

Monitoring oil levels The most convenient way to monitor your oil level is by fitting a Watchman or similar <https://www.kingspan.com/gb/en-gb/products/service> This transmits the oil level to an easy to read meter in the kitchen. My strong advice is to run your tank from full to full, so keeping it topped up, rather than letting the level drop and then ordering a larger amount. It is surprising how quickly oil levels reduce when temperatures drop. You will still be able to take advantage of the bulk price.

Payment In return for very low prices, our suppliers expect prompt payment. Please remember to settle up with the supplier within seven days of receiving an invoice. Sometimes the delivery note doubles as the invoice. If you do not have an account with the supplier, it may be necessary to pay in advance initially.

NOBC also runs a monthly budgeting system for those who prefer to pay by monthly standing order. If you would like details of how this works, either drop me a line or email Gerry Johnson at gerry@buysta.com Vehicle sizes The majority of tankers are four or six wheelers. These have 150ft hoses which enable the majority of deliveries to be made at no extra cost. However, if you have a particularly awkward tank location, then you can specify a mini tanker, but this will incur a surcharge as it may well have to be procured from another depot and then make a one off trip. If at all possible, specify the use of a standard tanker on your membership tank details.

'THREE TOWERS FETE' – SATURDAY
15TH JUNE – PERFECT WEATHER!

Compton Chamberlayne, Fovant, Sutton
Mandeville, Sutton Row, Chicksgrove

Please put Saturday 15th June in your diary and come along to the new Fete being organised for our five communities. The Fete will be run on the Cricket Ground, East Farm, Fovant (below the Badges) by kind permission of Edward Williams and his family and is being made possible by the generous donations of public-spirited sponsors from all our communities.

There has been no local fete for several years so a team of people is organising the 'Three Towers Fete' for all those living in the distribution area of our much valued community magazine. Hopefully you will have seen the leaflet, delivered to your house in January, and you may have come to the presentation in Fovant Village Hall on 31st January. If you would like a leaflet, please contact Diana Rae at Vine House, Fovant or at E: info@threetowersfete.org

The weather will be perfect (of course!) and there will be fantastic fun with traditional activities and races for everyone, young and old alike, and for your dogs too with fun classes and races. For the energetic there will be 'tug of war' for different age groups and between village teams and, for those who enjoy a quieter time, there will be tea and delicious homemade cakes in the Tea Tent. For the thirsty 'The Greater Good' will provide a bar.

It is hoped that each community will provide stalls and sideshows; these will be co-ordinated so we can enjoy a good variety of produce to buy and things to amuse us. Volunteers to run stalls and sideshows please contact Diana Rae (see above details).

It's up to us all to make the Fete fun for all ages so please get together with friends to offer help and ideas, offer lifts to those with mobility difficulties and make 15th June a memorable day for everyone.

TISBURY BEAT REPORT – JAN 2019

Frauds, scams and cyber crime

Fraud is the dishonest and intentional deception of a person intended to result in financial or personal gain.

Fraud happens when someone deceives you or lies to you to gain an advantage, such as taking your money or finding out private information about you. Fraud could happen in person, over the telephone, or online via email, text or a website.

Action Fraud deals specifically with fraud issues. To report fraud visit the Action Fraud website www.actionfraudalert.co.uk or call them on 0300 123 2040 (Monday to Friday 0800 hrs to 1800 hrs, Saturday 0900 hrs to 1700 hrs).

Below are just some of the ways in which people may be able to defraud you. We've gathered together advice on the latest frauds and scams, the signs to look out for, and what you can do to stop it happening to you.

Cyber Crime

Cyber crime is one of the fastest growing areas of crime, affecting businesses as well as individuals.

Any offence where criminals use technology to break the law is classed as online crime.

We often break cyber-crime down into two categories:

- Cyber-enabled crime - traditional crimes committed using the internet such as theft, harassment, fraud, identity theft, selling stolen goods, drug dealing.
- Cyber-dependent crime - online crimes where a digital system is the target. These include attacks on computer systems to disrupt IT infrastructures, such as; unauthorised access (hacking), malicious software programming (malware) or denial of service attacks. Cyber crime affects all areas of our society and can be very damaging and upsetting for victims. Whether you're a business or an individual, we are all vulnerable to cyber-crime

However, it is estimated that 80% of all cyber-crime is preventable, which means there are some basic steps that you can take to protect yourself.

In order to avoid becoming a victim of online crime you don't need to be a computer expert. Using good online habits drastically reduces the chances of becoming a victim of cybercrime and will allow you to reduce your vulnerability and surf the web safely.

Online Shopping

The internet has transformed the way in which we shop for the products and services we want.

Making purchases and banking online makes our lives easier, although shopping online doesn't come without its dangers.

- Do not enter personal or payment information on a website that has no padlock in the address bar or <https://> at the beginning of the address
- Use reputable companies when shopping online. Research them if you are unsure and establish a physical address and telephone contact details
- Do not pay for items when using an unsecured Wi-Fi connection
- Do not click on links or reply to unsolicited emails from companies you don't recognise.

Wiltshire Bobby Van Trust

The Wiltshire Bobby Van Trust provides a team of trained and Police vetted Stay Safe Online volunteers to offer home visits and group talks to the over 60s or 18+ with a registered disability.

The advice given includes:

- basic practical skills to ensure you can check and understand privacy settings
- cyber and scam prevention advice
- support and reassurance

Advice for victims

If you suspect you've been a victim of fraud involving credit or debit cards, online banking or cheques, you should report it to your bank or card company.

They are responsible for undertaking further investigation and reporting criminal activity to us where appropriate.

Fraud that doesn't involve your bank or card company should be reported to the business or organisation concerned. Depending on their advice, you may then need to report this to us on 101.

Where an additional crime has been committed with the fraud, for example, you have had your wallet or purse stolen or the card used fraudulently was taken as a result of a burglary, then this should still be reported to us on 101.

Some steps you can take to protect yourself:

- Make sure you keep a record of all communications.
- Get a copy of your personal credit report from one of the credit reference agencies - Experian, Equifax and Call Credit. A paper version of your report is available from £2. If applications for credit have been made in your name you can ask to have any incorrect information removed.

Consider contacting CIFAS - the UK's Fraud Prevention Service, to apply for protective registration. Once you have registered, CIFAS members will carry out extra

CRIME EXCEPTIONS DATA

These figures are based on an evaluation of data, over a two year rolling period. Using this data we can predict what figure is the average that should be reported in a specific month, and what are the higher and lower parameters that we may expect. Figures outside of these parameters are classed as 'Crime Exceptions'.

 Domestic Abuse figures will also be included in the values as it is on our Control Strategy but here will be no details shared on these cases **

DECEMBER 2018 DATA

December 2018 showed a total of 19 crimes for the whole Tisbury Beat area (EB11) against the average of 21 for this same month over the last 2 years. This is within the parameters we would reasonably expect. There are no exceptions within the data.

The 5 largest crime groups accounted for 84% of this recorded crime as follows;

Burglary showed 5 crimes compared to the average 4.2
Violence Against the Person showed 4 crimes compared to the average of 4.8

LOCAL PCSO – OTHER INFORMATION

COMMUNITY POLICING PRIORITIES WITHIN

YOUR AREA

WEEKLY TASKING MEETING

Inspector Andy FEE chairs a weekly internal "tasking meeting" where emerging community issues and concerns are raised and discussed for the whole West Wiltshire CPT area. From this meeting, priorities and actions are set and a tasking document produced. This involves developing strategies and the targeting of resources (including partner agencies) into tackling the issue or concern.

The Tisbury Area currently has the following matters;

OP ARTEMIS - Poaching and Hare Coursing. Rural and remote locations and farms around Tisbury and surrounding villages are at risk from Poachers damaging fences and gates to access land to Hare Course and Poach. This sometimes leads to cattle and sheep escaping out onto the roads causing issues for motorists and for the farmers. Crops and fields are also being damaged. We are conducting pro-active patrols to reduce this type of crime.

COMMUNITY SPEEDWATCH (CSW)

Every 2 weeks, 4 Community Speedwatch Schemes across West Wiltshire are selected by Leanne Homewood for CPT support (additional targeting, enforcement and patrols) to supplement the CSW team planned sessions. These are included in our weekly tasking document for action and update. All the results from the supplementary speed checks conducted are fed back to the relevant Town and Parish Councils in their individual Police Reports. The current Speedwatch Schemes being supported are as follows;

The current locations selected for supplementary speed checks from 2nd to 16th Jan 2019 are:

Nutrition and More

I hear that the latest Government advice is that we should all eat 30 grams of fibre daily. This is excellent advice because fibre reaches the large bowel undigested and, as well as bulking up the contents of the bowel, and thus avoiding constipation, it feeds the good bacteria and keeps them happy and functioning well which is very good for many aspects of our health.

What annoys me, though, is the lack of information about how to obtain that fibre. Many people will think "Allbran for breakfast" and leave it at that – and that will certainly bulk up the intestinal contents but will not supply any significant amount of nutrients. Nature supplies many whole (unprocessed) foods which are nutrient rich as well as fibre rich and, ideally, we should be eating these.

Examples are:

a) Most fruit and vegetables, including mushrooms, particularly green leafy vegetable and berries. If the skin is eaten as well this adds extra nutrients and fibre. Dried fruits, such as apricots and prunes are also fibre rich, and make a good snack, but we need to beware of their sugar content and not over-indulge.

b) Nuts and seeds. Seeds need to be well chewed or lightly ground to enable the digestive system to extract their nutrients because nature intends them to pass safely through the digestive tract of whichever bird or animal eats them along with the pulp of the fruit, and then be deposited elsewhere – together with a nice portion of manure - to grow a new plant. They pass through our digestive tract in exactly the same way unless the protective covering is broken - which supplies fibre but no nutrients!

c) Legumes. These are all kinds of Peas, Beans, Lentils and also Chickpeas which are often made into gram flour for Eastern cookery. They contain lots of fibre and nutrients including magnesium, which many of us are lacking nowadays. Peanuts are also a legume rather than a nut.

d) Whole (unrefined) grains such as wheat, oats, barley, rye, buckwheat and brown rice. These are good sources of nutrients and fibre but they do digest down into glucose, albeit fairly slowly, so we need to be careful with them. Digestion can be slowed even more, thus avoiding "spikes" of blood sugar, by the addition of good quality fats to the above carbohydrates such as butter on wholemeal bread or olive oil drizzled over wholemeal pasta before adding the pasta sauce.

Quinoa can be a good substitute for rice. It is more of a seed than a grain, is high in protein and fibre and is gluten-free. I usually use it for myself instead of rice.

I was giving a talk to a WI group once and had got to the stage where I was extolling the virtues of quinoa for those who preferred not to eat the other grains, and was describing it as the sacred food of ancient peoples like the Mayans, Aztecs and Incas, when a small lady who was sitting on the front row with folded arms and had eyed me with suspicion throughout the talk suddenly said "But they're all dead!". This caused a huge roar of laughter from everyone (including me!). I stated "There's no answer to that!" and hastily moved on to detail how tasty it is and how easy to cook – which it is. Take one measure of quinoa and two measures of water, place in a pan, bring to the boil, turn down the heat, cover the pan and simmer very gently till all the water is absorbed, 10 minutes or so – and there you are!

During the winter in northern regions like the UK we are unable to make sufficient of the vital nutrient Vitamin D – needed by every cell in our bodies – by the action of the sun on cholesterol in our skin, so I continue to supplement with the absorbable form of it – a capsule of Vitamin D3 together with Vitamin K2 which helps it to work. I shall continue to do this until about May when the sun becomes strong enough to do the job as it should. In my childhood many people took cod liver oil throughout the winter. This would have given them Vitamin D and Omega 3 oils - good for brain health and so much more. I wonder why all that stopped?

Here is our local church and we are sure that all would agree that it looks absolutely splendid-it is by far the oldest building in the village dating back to the 13th century. It is listed grade 2*. In addition 4 of the tombs in the churchyard as well as the sundial (which dates back to 1685) are scheduled monuments. We are very lucky to have such an ancient building in our midst.

Inevitably there are costs involved in keeping this building in reasonable condition and regrettably we get no help from the diocese-indeed we have to give them money. Every 5 years we have to commission a report from an expert on the condition of the church and then have to carry out the works listed by the expert. In the last 18 months or so we have spent large sums on various works identified by the expert including refurbishing part of the roof and improving the drainage round part of the church. We were lucky to receive significant financial assistance from outside but still had to expend more than £10,000 from our own funds.

Many people may think that there is no point in spending money on the church when so few people actually attend services-however the alternative of allowing the building to deteriorate until it falls into total disrepair is even worse and we feel sure that the inhabitants of Sutton Mandeville and neighbouring villages would want to contribute to stop that happening. With that in mind we would like people to make gifts, by covenant or on a one off basis (bear in mind that such gifts would qualify for gift aid so the Inland Revenue helps as well!). Please contact John Gailey, our Treasurer on 07775 991832 if you would like to help in this way.

Alternatively you may like to contribute to church funds by signing up for the monthly draw, the details for which are on the reverse. Some of you will already be doing this for which we are very grateful. We hope that you will continue to do so. If you have any queries, please speak to Jane Deverell (714898), John Gailey or David Willis (714768).
