4 Matters Arising

Parish Councillor Vacancy – Cllr Brunton reported that there had been 3 applicants for the vacancy on the Parish Council and the applicants will be invited to an interview at the next meeting.

5 Localism Bill – New Code of Conduct for Councillors

The Clerk reported that she had attended a Wiltshire Council briefing session on the Code of Conduct bill;

- a) Wiltshire Council will issue a code and password to each individual Parish Council.
- b) All Parish Councillors will need to fill out a new Register of Interest form on-line.
- c) All Parish Councillors need to sign up to a Code of Conduct whether it is from Wiltshire Council, WALC or NALC.

6 BVA update

Cllr Brunton reported on the recent BVAPC meeting whereby the Localism bill and Code of Conduct was discussed. All Parish Councillors will need to complete the WC online code of conduct form.

Further information on the Localism Bill, regarding planning, will be forthcoming in the next few months.

The meeting also discussed the position of the new Chair for the BVAPC and the Cllr's were in agreement that the Chair's position should be a permanent position and not an alternating one.

7 Discuss any relevant Planning

Planning Update. No.4 West Side – the original planning application has been revised in accordance with input from the Parish Council and local residents and has now been passed by the planning department.

S/2012/790/TCA – Apple Tree Cottage, Tidworth Road, Boscombe, Salisbury – Trees Cons Area, T1 Ash tree. Reduce crown to prevent damage to the property's thatch.
